

Reduction of Derailments in Europe

A seminar on the results of the EU-funded project D-RAIL

Stockholm, 12 November 2014

Seminar organised by UIC, Newcastle University, and Trafikverket, hosting ERA as “key note” speaker

Agenda:

12th November 2014

Time	Contents	Speaker
09:00	Coffee and registration
09:15	Welcome	Anna Lundman, Trafikverket
09:30	UIC support to railways to reduce derailments	Hans Günter Kersten, UIC
09:45	Program and activities	Björn Paulsson, UIC/Trafikverket
10:00	ERA's general view on derailment development and ongoing activities to reduce derailments	Emmanuel Ruffin, ERA
10:45	Coffee break
	Presentation of D-RAIL project – medium and long term focus
11:00	<input type="checkbox"/> Economic impact of freight train derailments in the perspective of demands and operational framework to 2050	Devan Islam, UNEW
11:30	<input type="checkbox"/> Analysis, modelling and simulation techniques for derailments' investigation	Michel Pineau, SNCF Anders Ekberg, Chalmers
12:00	<input type="checkbox"/> Monitoring and supervision concepts and techniques to prevent derailment	Antonella Semerano, MERMEC
12:30	Question and Answers

	Theme [SST.2011.4.1-3] Development of the Future Rail System to Reduce the Occurrences and Impact of Derailment
--	---	--

12:45	Lunch
13:45	<input type="checkbox"/> Integration of monitoring and supervision systems at European level	Mathias Krüger, DB
14:15	<input type="checkbox"/> Technical and economical assessment of the key derailment findings	Wali Nawabi, DB
14:45	<input type="checkbox"/> Implementation of D-RAIL results	Björn Paulsson, UIC/Trafikverket
15:15	Question and answers
15:30	HRMS – a project with short-term focus to reduce derailments	Wolfgang Zottl, ÖBB
16:00	Coffee break
16:30	Conclusions and future activities	Mark Robinson, UNEW Björn Paulsson, UIC/Trafikverket
17:00	End of Meeting

Registration

In order to register to the event, please fill in the following registration form:
<http://www.uic.org/forms/spip.php?article1465>

IMPORTANT:

- Participation in this event is free of charge.
- Participants need to arrange for their own accommodation and travel costs.

Venue

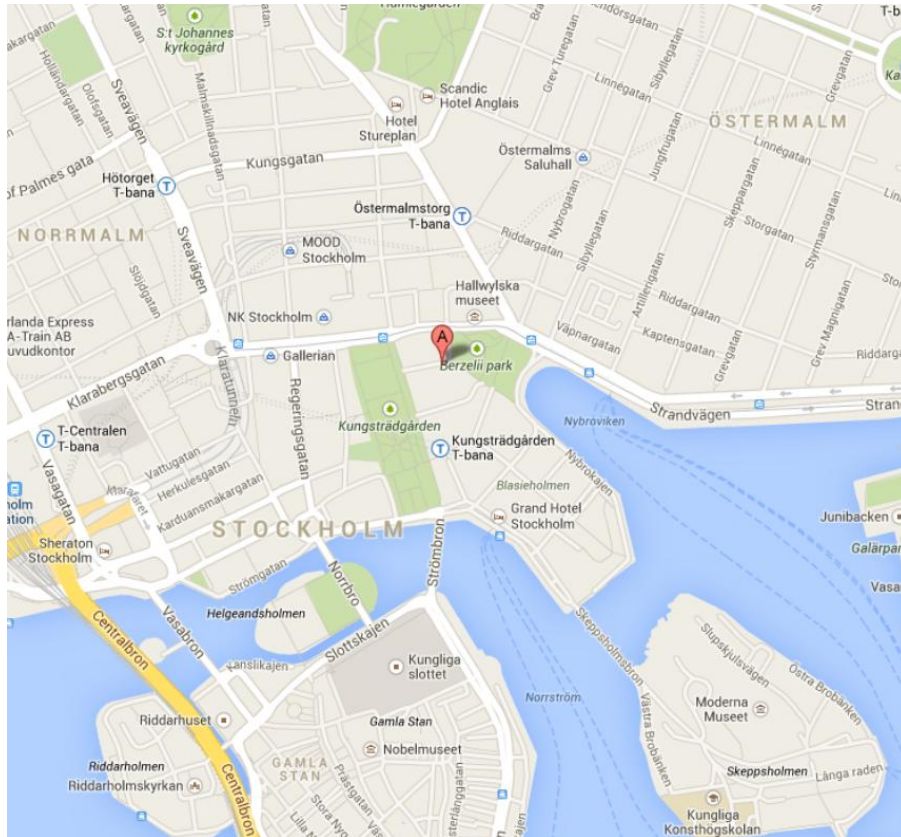

Address: Berns Konferens, Näckströmsgatan 8, Stockholm

Since its doors opened in 1863, Berns has been an oasis for curious cosmopolitans. By constantly presenting cutting edge events and challenging conventions we have been the Stockholmers' own living room for over a century. World famous stars mix with up-and-coming artists, sophisticated businessmen and trendy media people. The contrasts are mirrored in the extravagant halls that are decorated with gold and stucco that hold secret corners and scandalous stories. We offer you an air of the world 24 seven. Berns is a place to experience with all your senses.

Berns convention centre is located in central Stockholm at walking distance from Stockholm Central Station.

Accommodation

For your convenience, many hotels are located the direct vicinity of the venue.

Every 15 minutes, the Arlanda Express (railway connection) brings you in 20 minutes from Arlanda Airport to Stockholm Central station.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Stockholm and remain,

With best regards,

Cristian Ulianow
Björn Paulsson
Mark Robinsso